Office Hours: 9:30-11am, Wednesday and Friday, and by appointment

COURSE OVERVIEW AND OBJECTIVES

The objective of this course is to achieve an understanding of the nature of totalitarianism, its origins, conceptualization, and attraction, and of resistance to totalitarian claims. In this endeavor, we draw on works of political philosophy and theory, history, literature, film, and experience.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Journal Entries = 20%	10-12 journal entries
Midterm Exam = 25%	In class, Wednesday, October 1
Analytical Essay = 25%	Due at the start of class, Friday, November 21
Final Exam = 30%	Take-home, due to Stubbs 216 by 5pm, Wednesday, December 10

Grading Scale
A = 90-100%
B = 80-89.9%
C = 70-79.9
D = 60-69.9
F = <60%

Your course grade is based on journal entries (20%), a midterm exam (25%), an 8-10 page analytic essay (25%), and a final exam (30%). You will be provided with review questions in advance of the exams. You will need a Blue Book and a Scantron for your midterm exam (available at the LSU bookstore). Your final exam will be a take-home exam, due in my office no later than 5pm, Wednesday, December 10, 2014. You are encouraged to organize your own group study, as it facilitates your understanding of the material and challenges you to think critically about the major questions and arguments of each text. All late material will be penalized. Announcements and readings for bonus opportunities will be posted on Moodle or distributed in class. I reserve the right to administer unannounced bonus quizzes.

The analytical essay will consist of an 8-10 page exegetical and critical analysis. A list of suggested topics, as well as a detailed description of the nature of this assignment, will be provided for you. If you depart from the suggested list, you must have your topic approved. The essay will be due on Friday, November 21, 2014. Important dates for the essay:

Topic approved by: Friday, September 26, 2014 (hard copy, in class)

Abstract approved by: Friday, October 24, 2014 (hard copy, in class)

Final submission: Friday, November 21, 2014 (hard copy, in class)

Reading, Attendance, and Academic Integrity

Your success in this class depends upon your consistent attendance and participation. Before each class period, you should read the assigned materials and thoughtfully consider their significance for our study. Our task is to read sympathetically in order to read critically – that is, to understand what each author is asking and arguing, and then to thoughtfully evaluate his work. Of course, in order to facilitate analysis and ease of reference, you should bring your copy of the text to class. At the end of each class period, I will announce the readings for the next class period.

Etiquette and Electronics in Class

Classroom etiquette acknowledges that class time is set apart for a special purpose and requires students to respect others in word and in deed. Make sure you are ready to begin when our class starts and wait until it is over to pack your notes and belongings. Be attentive to what others say, and make an effort to contribute to class discussions. Know that, unless there is an emergency, leaving before class is over is unacceptable. The use of laptops, tablets, and smart phones is not allowed in class, except for official note-takers. Using pen and paper instead limits the distractions your laptop presents to you and your neighbor. Importantly, studies show, using pen and paper also contributes to better understanding and more effective learning overall. Audio recorders are allowed, but strictly for your personal use.

Moodle

Login to Moodle through your myLSU account to access readings (posted as PDF files or Internet links) and your grades.
